

HOW CAN FEEDBACK BEST BE IMPROVED?

b. Hi(gher)-tech feedback

c. Feedback that's more of a dialogue

d. Resource banks that show students what makes for high standards in the subject

a. Faster turnaround times, speedier feedback

l. A university that is genuinely committed to good teaching

e. Feedback on exams

k. Fuller subject-training for staff in effective feedback.

m. More in-class low-stakes practice on assignments and assessments

o. Assessment schemes that enable students to act on feedback

f. Help students more to review their progress

j. Guidance to students on how to make the most of feedback

n. Better information in class handbooks on when & how feedback will be provided

i. An open-door policy on student guidance.

g. Give students practice in judging quality and giving feedback to others

h. Making assessment more formative & developmental